

THE RAINBOW FESTIVAL.

THE WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION'S ENTERTAINMENT.

The Spacious New Lee Building, on Main Street, Converted Into a Bower of Beauty—Prismatic Colors Represented in the Arrangements.

Those estimable ladies of the Women's Christian Association, whose charity has taken so many practical forms and who have been good Samaritans to so many unfortunate and needy people, do not seem to weary of well-doing, or slacken in their efforts to ameliorate the sufferings of those depending upon their charity.

They propose giving a Rainbow Festival, beginning this evening at 4 o'clock, and continuing on for three nights.

This evening the doors of the spacious building at Nos. 195 and 197 Main street will be thrown open and a picture of marvellous beauty and elegance will be revealed to the view. There are two rainbows at the rear of the hall which first catch the eye, each having the traditional bag of money hung on one end. Around the walls are strewn seven booths, and down the center of the hall, between the rows of supporting pillars, are seven tables, each with a tablecloth representing one of the prismatic colors. The booths are gaily decked with boughs of pine, cedar, spruce and magnolia, and laced about with clinging vines. Flowers of rare beauty and fragrance, and in prodigal profusion, will adorn each booth, and fairer flowers than ever grew on earth will be seen in the gardens of Memphis's elite society, will minister to the wants of the visitors.

Upward of seventy young ladies, dressed in colors harmonizing with their respective booths will be present and when it is considered that each young lady has her own family and usually some one else's family, interested in her, the numbers increase with wonderful rapidity. The booths and tables begin, first with the violet, which represents the Woman's Exchange; indigo, the Refuge; blue, the House to House Visitation; green, the Children's Home; yellow, the Woman's Boarding House; orange, the Glomer, the association's paper; red, the Hospital. Refreshments will be served each evening, from each booth, and around each table will assemble young ladies to lend the charm of their presence and vie, not unsuccessfully, with the choicest offerings of Flora.

During the evening music will be furnished by an excellent band, and on the second floor the Merchants' Zouaves will entertain people by giving a fairy drill. It is expected that there will be a large attendance. The entertainment will be exceptionally fine and the objects for which it is given should arouse universal interest and attract large audiences.

PERSONAL POINTS.

Jas. A. B. Franklin has returned from Arkansas.

Mrs. J. H. Prowman, of Atlanta, is the guest of Miss Higbee, of the Higbee School.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Felmer left yesterday for a three weeks trip to Colorado and the West.

Mrs. H. B. Moore, of Henning, Tenn., is visiting her brother, Dr. B. G. Henning, on Poplar street, this week.

Visitors on 'Change yesterday: Perry Baker, Greenville, Miss.; W. H. Jordan, Greenville, Miss.; W. E. Greenleaf, Spring Hill, Tenn.

Prof. F. D. Seward has resigned as tenor of the Grace Church choir, in contemplation of an extended tour of the West, to begin on June 15.

Mrs. B. B. Barker died at her residence, on Waldron avenue, yesterday morning, after a lingering illness. She enjoyed the affection of a multitude of friends who share the grief of her family. Mrs. Barker leaves a husband and two children—a son and a daughter.

ARTHUR WARDLE and Miss Jessie Jones will be married in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church next Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock. The young lady is the daughter of the pastor of the church, and Mr. Wardle belongs to the English contingent of cotton men who represent their firms in this city. After the ceremony the bridal couple will start on a trip to Europe and return in September.

$10,000 Rewards.
One thousand dollars will be paid to any chemist who will find on analysis of S. S. S. (Swift's Specific), one particle of mercury, iodide of potassium, or any poisonous substance.

In 1873 I contracted blood poison, which soon developed into its severest secondary form, with blotches and ugly sores all over my body, which totally disabled me for more than a year. The doctors treated me all the time without benefit. The disease steadily growing worse and worse, I was unable to work for more than a year; finally I was persuaded to take Swift's Specific. After taking seven bottles I was sound and well, and have not felt a symptom of the disease since. This was sixteen years ago.
Forsyth, Ga., January 23, 1889.

I have taken Swift's Specific for second-hand blood poison, and derived great benefit. It acts much better than potash, or any other remedy that I have ever used.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

About 200 excursionists took a pleasure trip on the steamer Alice last night.

St. Peter's Church is receiving a fresh coat of paint that lends an attraction to the building.

Officer Wilder arrested Tom Stanton and Oscar Grantham on a charge of carrying a stolen skiff into the State.

Three little colored girls were before Justice Wellborn yesterday on a charge of stealing scrap iron. They were lectured and discharged.

All members of the Merchants' Zouaves are expected to be at the army in full uniform this afternoon, for drill at Citizens' Baseball Park for the benefit of the orphans.

The Cumberland Presbyterian Church, on Court street, is being handsomely painted. The color is a beautiful drab, and adds much to the appearance of the magnificent structure.

Every man, woman and child in the city who can do so, should go the Citizens' Park, this afternoon, where a superb program of sport has been arranged for the benefit of the orphans.

All the stock for the new Theater has been subscribed, and the next step in the preliminaries will be taken at once. It is not expected to have it open for attraction by the beginning of next season.

Justice Holman, who lives in the vicinity, informed an APPEAL reporter yesterday that Deputy Sheriff Tom Pierson, who was shot while arresting a negro in Shakerag, is improving and will recover.

Tickets for Mrs. Rose P. Thompson's benefit, to be given at the theater Tuesday, May 7th, are being liberally taken by an appreciative public. A program of rare excellence has been arranged for the occasion.

"What are the city engineers doing with their instruments? Why, they are measuring the sidewalks to see if the book-makers carried away any of them. They took everything else," said Mr. Joe Thiers.

There will be a fancy dress ball at Cochran Hall tonight for the benefit of the Memphis Reds Amateur Baseball Club. A large number of tickets have been sold and the arrangements are for a most delightful affair.

Southern mothers, please meet promptly with flowers Saturday, May 4, at 2 o'clock, at the Confederate monument, Elmwood, to co-operate with the Historical Society in decorating our soldiers' graves. By request of the president, Mrs. S. C. Law.

The Ladies' Auxiliary Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association will hold an interesting meeting in their parlors, 207 Main street, this evening, at 8:30 o'clock. Members are cordially invited to be present and bring their friends with them.

At the Third Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Chelsea, Thursday and Friday evenings, May 2 and 3, will be presented the association's well known fairy story, "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs." The ladies have been to a great deal of labor and expense in preparing this novel entertainment and they now depend upon the patronage of a generous and appreciative public for financial success. Admission 25 cents.

The APPEAL was in error in saying one day last week that Mr. T. A. Futrell, of Marianna, Ark., is a merchant and that he took in the races. That gentleman was confounded with a person of the same name, hence the mistake. Mr. Futrell is the principal of a flourishing "male and female institute" located at Marianna, the commencement exercises of which are shortly to take place under circumstances of exceptional eclat.

A Musical Treat.

The concert of Messrs. I. Samuelson & Co., at their Club Palace, 319 Main street, rendered by Sr. Vincent Campagna's celebrated parlor orchestra, was a most pronounced success. Several hundred people were in attendance and the unanimous verdict was that it was an artistic rendition and a musical treat. Samuelson & Co. do not mean to leave this city without only what they will do—they employ no penny talent and can always substantiate what they advertise. They have just received a large shipment of Henry Clay, Florio Samuelson and Diligence Cigars direct from Havana in bond to Memphis.

Huntville's Attractions for Investors
Attention is called to the advertisement in this issue of the auction sale of 1,000 lots at Huntville, Ala., on next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, May 8, 9 and 10. Cheap excursion rates over the railroads have been arranged for, and a delightful time will be enjoyed by all who attend. It is a point of beauty. Huntville is truly the "Queen City of the South," and has many attractions that will interest the visitor. In hotels it is most admirably equipped. Its new railroads building and being projected, increasing factories, one hundred miles of free pike under construction, give it a solid growth and new life that will be lasting, and render any investment there safe and remunerative.

The town or city that invests millions of dollars in hotels, new railroads and factories, and grows by avoiding speculative booms is the town where an investment will pay and that is the character of the city of Huntville, Ala., as is shown by its record.

A BOOM AT STEVENSON.

Letter Full of Gratifying Meaning from the Secretary.

The following letter, received by Capt. R. J. Black, and secured from him by an APPEAL reporter, tells how things are moving for the Stevenson Land and Improvement Company:

STEVENSON, Ala., April 29, 1899.

Friend Black—I have only a few moments in which to write before leaving for the train.

We are having a veritable boom here so far. I have had the streets all marked out; have had the level and grade stakes set for grading Alabama avenue, for which I shall make contracts with a Chattanooga man tomorrow.

Have five cranes well on their way, and today am hard at work with the architect, Vaulx, locating the foundations for the hotel.

Shall make a contract for the foundation tomorrow. Have arranged with a party to build a cornmill and gin, and this summer to put up a flouring-mill on our lands, and send me to Chattanooga tomorrow to negotiate with parties who talk as though they might put up works that would employ 100 hands in manufacturing horse and mule shoes.

The effect of all these movements and activity on my part has excited the people here and in the country round about to a wonderful extent, and they are tumbling over each other in their efforts to get our lots.

I sold two on Thursday, two on Friday and seven on Saturday, and I presume shall sell a dozen today unless I conclude to withdraw from the market entirely.

One man offered me $500 for a lot yesterday, which I begged him to take three or four months ago at $200. Yours truly,
JNO. J. FREEMAN.

THE HAWES TRIAL.

It Looks Like the Defense Has No Case—The Sympathy Dodge.

Special Dispatch to The Appeal.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 1.—The attorneys are still arguing the Hawes murder case. Hon. Jno. McIntosh concluded his seven-hour speech for the defense about noon today, and Frank Barnett for the defense followed. They are trying the sympathy dodge, it appears, and plead that the crime was too inhuman for a husband and father to have committed.

The general opinion is that they have no case, and that only still calm and serene and evinces little interest in what is being said. Judge Denison, for the State, was on the floor at the adjournment today, and will finish his speech tomorrow. Col. Taliaferro will follow him for the defense, and Solicitor Hawkin will close for the State. The court-room has been packed all day.

Notice.

The Prospect Park & Belt Dummy Line will begin running regular trains to Prospect Park today. Trains will leave Second and Gay street about every hour and forty minutes and pass within a short distance of Calvary Cemetery.

GREAT ACTIVITY

In the Building of Cotton Mills in the South.

BALTIMORE, Md., May 1.—The Manufacturers' Record of this week will report great activity in cotton mill building throughout the South. In the last three weeks about fifteen companies have been organized to build cotton mills. Florence, Ala., leads with three new mills, at an aggregate cost of $800,000, two of which, costing $600,000, are to be moved from Philadelphia. New England capitalists will build a 50,000-spindle mill at Denison, Tex., and one to cost $250,000 at Fort Payne, Ala. Galveston, Tex., is to have a $500,000 mill and a $100,000 mill. Spartanburg, S. C., a $500,000 mill with 30,000 spindles. Atlanta a $500,000 enlargement of an old mill, including 18,000 spindles and 600 looms; Texarkana a $120,000 mill, and Greenwood, S. C., a $100,000 mill, while a large number of others will soon be fully organized.
